Mrs Rogers Message

This week, we have enjoyed the annual Sports Days over Monday and Tuesday. There has been many races and events that were very exciting to watch and the competition between houses was great! We also had family picnics in the lunch times and that really gave us an opportunity to enjoy times with each other. Each of the dog mentors have their houses;

Dahl- Ruby

Donaldson- Rolo

Rowling- Reggie

Walliams- Rocky

We have our first annual Sports Award evening this week, which is by invitation only. We hope to repeat this every year for Key Stage 2 to recognise school sporting achievements. As well, as this we are holding our next PSA tournament for year 4 on Thursday, where we will be hosting many other schools and our year 4 play to be champions!

Year 5 will be visiting Chatham Dockyard this coming Thursday for their topic on Medieval Medway. Year 5 parents, if you have not yet been on to arbor to give your permission, please ensure you do this, so your child can go on this adventure with us!

We look forward to our Governor Day on Thursday. Our governors are a group of people who support us as a school and ensure that we are delivering the best opportunities to our children. They will be with us all day on Thursday and will be visiting some lessons to see how well behaved and hard working our children are, we are always so proud to show visitors how lovely our children are!

I hope you all have a lovely weekend and stay safe, Mrs Rogers.

Safeguarding Corner

If you have concerns about your child, please come in and discuss these with Mrs Flynn or a member of our Inclusion Team. Each week there will be safeguarding tips here, let us know if we can help! Today's focus is from Think U Know about the 5 golden rules of keeping your children safe online!

BRITISH COUNCIL THINK U KNOW

BE SOCIAL, STAY SAFE

At the British Council, we take child protection very seriously. Many parents have commented to us that they are worried about their children and social media. So we have prepared these designed to help keep your children safe online while they enjoy social media. We hope you find them useful.

5 GOLDEN RULES

- #### 1. Show me

Ask your child to show you the sites they use

Show an interest, take note of the sites your children visit and re-visit them later when you are alone. Find out how to set the safety features and how to report any issues directly to the site.

46% of parents admit that their children know more about the internet and social media than they do.
- #### 2. Low profile

Ask your child to set profile settings to private

Since children use social media sites to share just about everything they do, setting their profile to private can help protect them against photos, personal information or even location in the real world ending up in the wrong hands.

80% of 12-15 year olds in the UK have an active social networking site profile.
- #### 3. Just ask

Ask your child about their online friends

Help your children understand that people can create fake identities online and lie about who they are. They should only give out personal information and be "friends" with people they know and trust in the real world.

35% of children have unsupervised access to the internet.
- #### 4. Photo check

Ask your child to only share photos that they wouldn't mind showing you first!

Talk to your child about the images they send, the sites and apps they use to share them and who they are sending them to.

Children aged 12-15 are spending more time online.
- #### 5. Don't worry

Ask your child to tell you if they are worried about something online

By talking to your child about the internet, their favourite sites and the risks they may encounter, they are more likely to turn to you if they get into situations online where they don't feel comfortable or see something they don't want to see.

Children aged 8-11 are more likely than they were in 2011 to watch and download user-generated content*.

*Ofcom report in the UK (April 2013)

You can find further internet safety tips on the British Council's LearnEnglish Kids site: <http://learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org/en/parents/articles/using-the-internet-and-computer-safely>

This infographic has been put together with the kind participation of the UK's Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre. If you have more questions and would like further advice, please visit their Thinkuknow website at www.thinkyouknow.co.uk/parents.

"The British Council believes that all children have potential and that every child matters - everywhere in the world. The British Council affirms the position that all children have the right to be protected from all forms of abuse as set out in article 19, UNCRC, 1989."

SPORTS DAY (s) 2024

A huge congratulations to everyone who took part, who organised and to all who came along to enjoy the sunshine and celebrate our children

You will have seen lots of photos on our social media sites, but here are a few more for you

A special mention to one of our pupils sportsmanship during the Sports Days :

A parent emailed to say they observed one of our Sports Leaders hi-five every child after their events, he praised and encouraged everyone wherever they came or they were disappointed with how they did.

A true credit and sportsmanship shown throughout the day to all the pupils.

Well done Mason, a real inspiration to everyone !
