Dear Parents/Carers

Re: Consultation regarding Friday afternoon closure.

Dear Parents/Carers,

Following early responses to the consultation regarding Friday afternoon closure, it has been decided to pause the process while answers to common questions are compiled.

Additional information will be sent out to you shortly and the consultation will be reopened on Monday 24th May.

We apologise for this delay and thank you for your patience while we ensure you have the best information with which to make your decision and respond to this important consultation.

If you have already completed the consultation survey but the additional information causes you to change your view, please submit a new response for us to consider.

Kind regards

Owen McColgan
Chief Executive
